

Dydt Glenor 22 March.

ZOI: to polish and publish a Modern Retelling of Romeo and Juliet.

One misty morning the birds were chirping in the hazy sunlight. Suddenly they heard hickering in the streets below. yet again it was the Montagues and Capulets, the big great ritual supermarket where the drivers were fighting over their shared driveway.
It was pathetic. This latest feud was over the big v-pad on the shelves. This was the latest in May incidents which included writing sent by dates earlier or later, changing prices and selling the fizzy pop as a consequence of the latest incident, people could get in or out of the car park. The Mayor of Verona's chatter driven car was caught up in the jam. He was out and spoke to both Managers telling them that if there was any more fighting he would shut down both stores.

Later that week, the Capulet Employee of the Month award was held in a room bigger than any room you could imagine. There were diamonds on chandeliers hanging from the ceiling. There was so much foam that it could fill two million elephants' stomachs. Lord Capulet ordered that Tybalt was the winner. Meanwhile sneakingly,

Three intruder climbed through an open window. As time passed the ceremony turned into a ball one lady called Juliet had no one to dance with. Finally Romeo caught sight of this stunning angel and straddled over to her. They danced and both fell in love. They had to get married.

Later that week, the couple's friends, not long after their secret wedding day came the happy couple got married by friar Lawrence later that morning Romeo was strolling free the street of Verona when in a flash Tybalt and his gang started him and charging Romeo to fight him. Romeo whispers, "I'm going to fight you I'm man enough to walk away." He calmly walked away. However, Mercutio was shaking with rage and began to fight Tybalt. The two scuffled furiously until Mercutio was slain. Upon hearing this magnificent and devastating news Romeo rushed back to Tybalt. "You don't know what you've done you back hearted beast!"

In the blink of an eye Romeo killed Tybalt. The Mayor of Verona heard the news and banished him from the town forever. At that moment Juliet was sobbing in the arms of friar Lawrence after hearing a charging notification. Her parents were forcing her to marry Paris. Friar Lawrence wanted to help his friend with all his heart and soul. in a stricken of grief he came up with a plot.

Boldly he explained, "I will crush sleeping pills into a bribe which will make you appear dead for forty two hours. you can then run away with Romeo?"

"Please remember to thank Romeo the plan!" pleaded Juliet. He promised to do this so Juliet ate the bribe and fell asleep. Not long after, Lord and Lady Capulet discovered that

Not long after Lord and Lady Capulet discovered that Juliet did not rise for breakfast. Cautiously they climbed Marcellous' staircase to her chamber.
To their complete heart break they sunk upon the lifeless body of their pride and joy Juliet dead on the floor.
They sobbed in sorrow so they transported her to her final resting place in the family tomb. Spying in the kitchen Romeo's person's constant Balthasar heard the news with regret. in a flash he rushed to Romeo to share the terrible news.
Romeo's heart broke and he swore to buy poison to end his own life.

Simultaneously, Friar Laurence was sat at home feeling as if he had for gotten to do something.

Banking, Romeo arrived at the Capulet tomb. He felt as lost as a leaf separated from its branch. He drank his poison and drugg to his deck. Marmont later Juliet awakes from deep sleep. to see her husband, Romeo, slumped dead on the floor in a moment of misery She grabbed Romeo's dagger and plunged it into her heart. The tragic lovers were found and then families united in grief. The prince of Verona blamed them both for the deaths. He screamed

"Never was there a story of Juliet and her Romeo."